can you help?

we need more raving fans!

On the home page of our website you will see a box headed "raving fans" - have a quick look.

If you have kindly supplied a testimonial in the past, you may be on there already, but if not and you are happy with our service, can we ask that when you get a spare minute you put it down on paper (or an email) and send it across to us.

We can then add you to our list of "raving fans".
