super special web site launch edition

That's right, our brand spanking new site is launched on friday the 29th of august 2008!

Have a look and let us know what you think, any comments good or bad will be genuinely welcomed.

We have a number of exciting developments planned over the next 6 months so please check the site regularly to keep up to date with what we can offer you.

I will also be taking random snaps of all you fantastic customers to place on our "happy customers" gallery over the coming months.

things to... look out for on our new site

Brightstar Blog:

Our take on anything we deem to be creative (especially in and around Sheffield).

"Happy Customers" Gallery:

This will "kick in" once we have more lovely pictures of all you out there (however the happy customer banner will be viewable from launch).

Marketing Gifts:

We are partnering up with an excellent supplier of Marketing Gifts and will shortly be in a position to offer a full and extensive range of printed marketing items (you should receive a catalogue by the end of September) so don't order your company Christmas gifts just yet!

Work Gallery:

A wider range of our recent work for you to view (and maybe get a few ideas)?

Taxi Advertising:

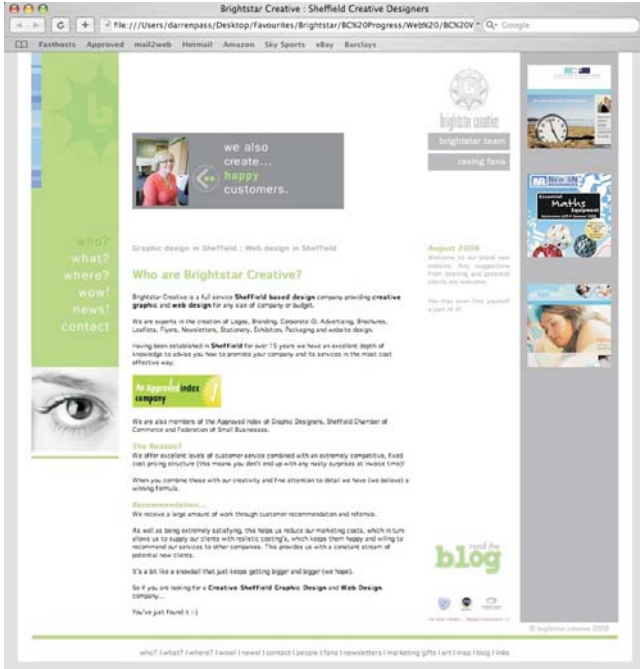

We will soon be able to offer all our customers this exciting and powerful way of advertising at very competitive costs.

Regular News Updates:

Check out what we are doing.

Your Turn:

Let us know how we are doing by filling in our new "your Turn" form - we may even publish it meaning, a bit of free publicity for you :-)

Have a look at our new staff profiles:

For those of you who have always wondered what we all look like, have a look at the "Brightstar People" page on our new site.

THING OF THE MONTH

Just has to be all those shiny medals our boys and girls brought back with them!
