the brightstar creative club of the year and the winners are

The South Yorkshire Sport and re:play Sports Awards held at the Institute of Sport was a huge success.

As we mentioned in last months newsletter, we were the proud sponsors of the Club of the Year.

As the competition was so high this year there were 2 well deserving winners.

- ★ Junior Sharks Basketball Club
- ★ Barnsley Cricket Club

Well done and keep up the good work!

tips 3

Register your website with as many free directories as you can. Directories usually have the funds, man hours and content to achieve higher rankings so you have more chances of being found, it will also improve your link rating.

Calendar marketing cards cost effective year round advertising!

We have produced these high quality full colour gloss laminated calendars for lots of companies over the years and they really do work!

Most people will keep one of these handy cards in their wallet or purse which means your company details are with them all year round.

Our all inclusive price makes them extremely cost effective. They are also easy to distribute, simply pop one in with a letter, invoice or statement.

We do have companies that order all year round but obviously the next 6 weeks is the ideal time to order to maximise the use for 2007.
